Did you know Lincoln Center adds $2.4 billion to New York's economy, as well as 16,000 jobs?

The arts create jobs, boost local business, and drive tourism.

This #GivingTuesday, your tax-deductible gift can give back to millions of New Yorkers.

Plus, you'll help sustain year-round free performances and leading education programs.

You support New Yorkers when you support the arts with your tax-deductible gift to Lincoln Center.

Dear Nicole,

As a member of the Lincoln Center family, your support changes lives every day for countless New Yorkers.

This Giving Tuesday, we invite you to follow us on Facebook and Twitter so that you can see all the ways your support helps us give back.

You can also share your own reasons for giving to Lincoln Center with the hashtag #GivingTuesday, or add to your generous support by clicking the Donate button.

Thank you for making everything we do possible—not just on our stages, but in communities and classrooms throughout New York.

We look forward to hearing from you,
The Membership Team at Lincoln Center

"I have a 9-year-old daughter, Sadie Kate, who sees Lincoln Center as her home-away-from-home, the plaza as her backyard. I see it as my job to make sure that all 9-year-olds feel that way, now and for generations to come." – Acting President Russell Granet.

Happy #FathersDay! A big thank you to all the dads who share arts experiences with their children. 🧡

Barbara Gulan My son Pdraig spent the first few days of his life at Lincoln Center while his father performed on the stage. And then years later, came back to become chosen as one of the top ten finalists in the National Shakespeare Recitation Competition at Lincoln Center 2 years ago. Thank you for keeping the spirit of a creative home alive and well for children.
